

Established in loving memory of –
Dr.M.L.Kathuriya (1935-2017) & Smt. Pramila Devi Kathuriya (1938-1992)

Introduction to Dr. M.L. Kathuriya

Born in the North-West Frontier Province of undivided India, specifically Dera Ismail Khan. After the partition, his family eventually settled in Jabalpur.

Dr. M.L. Kathuriya's distinguished service in the Madhya Pradesh Government from 1961 to 1991 and subsequently at GEC Raipur underscores his dedication to education. Following his voluntary retirement in 1991, he taught at BIT Durg until 1996. Later, he renunciate everything, moving to Sri Prayagdham Charitable Trust's Ashram in Urulikanchan, Pune, to engage in charitable work for over 20 years. His academic journey included groundbreaking research on Acoustics of Ducts and Mufflers, relevant to silencer design in automobiles and HVAC systems.

Rooted in GEC Jabalpur, Dr. Kathuriya, with a Bachelor's and Master's in Mechanical Engineering, epitomized deep subject understanding, analytical prowess, and a Gold Medal-winning PhD.

Driven to empower women through education, Dr. Kathuriya's beliefs resonated in his daughters' postgraduate achievements. His teaching philosophy transcended grades, focusing on subject mastery. Specializing in Theory of Machines, I.C. Engines, and Numerical Methods with Fortran 77, he aimed to shape impactful generations.

The Dr. M.L. Kathuriya Scholarship honors his aspiration for education-driven empowerment, especially for women, leaving a lasting imprint. This initiative envisages self-reliance and an indelible legacy, embodying Dr. Kathuriya's values of education, empowerment, and enduring impact.

Introduction to Smt. Pramila Devi Kathuriya

Born in the North-West Frontier Province of undivided India, specifically Dera Ismail Khan. Following the partition, her family eventually settled in Delhi.

Mrs. Kathuriya embodied simplicity, gentleness, kindness, and humility. A woman of deep faith, she embraced her role as a homemaker and achieved the distinction of being a graduate during her era. Her nurturing nature and boundless affection made her a beloved figure to everyone fortunate enough to know her. As a devoted mother and a beacon of love, her influence was felt by all.